

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

CAPITAL PURE ASSETS, LTD.,
 Plaintiff(s),
 v.
 CC TECHNOLOGY CORPORATION,
 Defendant(s).

Case No. 2:24-cv-00680-NJK¹

ORDER

The Court ordered Counter-Defendants Capital Pure Assets, Ltd., Shiva Prakash, Hannah Dawn Prakash, Vikhyat Prakash, Chrisman, P.C., and James P. Chrisman to comply with their obligation under the settlement agreement to make an initial payment of $14,000 to CC Technology Corporation. Docket No. 62 at 7. The deadline to make that initial payment expired at noon on April 21, 2025. Id. Counter-Defendants violated that order. See Docket No. 64 (notice of non-compliance); see also Docket No. 63 (Counter-Defendants' notice of "partial" compliance).

In CC Technology Corporation's notice of non-compliance, requests are made for: issuance of an order to show cause why Counter-Defendants should not be held in contempt; imposition of sanctions, including attorney's fees and costs; enforcement of the settlement agreement requirement to make the initial payment; enforcement of the settlement agreement requirement to make the first quarterly payment; and disbursement to CC Technology Corporation of the funds held in the Court's registry. Docket No. 64 at 2-3.

Requests for relief from the Court must be presented in a motion supported by points and authorities. Local Rule 7-2(a). Requesting relief within a notice is not sufficient. Accordingly, the Court hereby ORDERS as follows: (1) CC Technology Corporation must file a proper motion supported by points and authorities, as well as robust argument as to each request being made, by
